Introducing our School House Captains

The School has been grouped into four houses representing local landmarks.

Haddon (blue) Pevril (green), Chatsworth (yellow) and Hardwick (red). When we award the super stars at each Good Work Assembly these are now collated into house points. We've also worked in houses during worship this half term giving Leadership opportunities to our House Captains.

Breakfast Club will run Monday to Thursday from January 2017 but we are still able to offer a Friday slot if you need one, we will require advance notice of one week.
Thank you.

Please ask at the office for more information about Breakfast Club.

Soccer Success ~ The Football Tournament

The year 3 and 4s went to a football tournament at Hope Valley College.

We had two very good teams at the tournament. These were the teams, A team were: Charlie, Dan, Will, Jack, Adey, Olivia, Savannah and Bess. Jack was the keeper. B Team players were: Jake, Christopher, Marley, Nellie, Florence, Eleanor, Emma, Bea and Eliza. Jake and Marley were in net. "The tournament was absolutely brilliant!" Emma explained. "You played as a team very well and encouraged each other!" mentioned Mrs Hix.

We all did our best and we all enjoyed it. Eyam A played exceptionally well and came 1st! Eyam B did amazingly well too and came 3rd!

By Charlie and Daniel M

Reception and Y1 children say a BIG thank you this term for the fun games.
