

May 4th – week 7

Well done children and parents for keeping to the rules and staying at home as much as you have done – and for keeping up with your daily exercise as well. This is SO important for the body and mind and family harmony! It's hard for us all and we can only do our very best.

THANK YOU PARENTS <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FTnylCpSVMA&feature=youtu.be>

A great way to learn symmetry with reception .....

Music lessons via zoom!

Picture News this week is a special about Captain Tom who has reached 100 years of age AND continues to raise millions for the NHS.

Other news – Mrs Cass's name is now showing in Tapestry, actually she has been using it all the time she's been here it was just registered as Mrs Gilbertson! 😊

Seesaw: staff are using the 'like' button for children sending in a lot of photos in order to try and make sure every child has about the same amount of written feedback.

<https://www.bt.com/skillsfortomorrow/> Support such as online banking, working from home, learning from home and getting your business on line.

There are also 2 Assembly ideas should you wish to check them out.
